

JOB DESCRIPTION

Solicitor/FILEX – Wills, Trusts & Probate

Full-Time. NORWICH

We are looking to appoint an experienced, motivated and conscientious Wills, Trusts and Probate Solicitor/Private Client Practitioner to join our busy, highly-regarded and fast-growing team.

The position is based at our Norwich Office, but with the flexibility to also cover our Lowestoft and Wymondham branches where required.

The ideal candidate will have at least three-years post qualification experience, with either full STEP membership or studying/working towards this qualification.

They will have a proven track record in drafting wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney and advising on estate planning. Experience in setting up and administering Trusts would be a particular advantage.

In return we can offer an attractive salary and benefits, good quality work and the opportunity to develop your career at a forward-thinking firm, with professional development.

If you are ambitious, have exceptional interpersonal skills, believe in excellent client care, and are experienced in managing a high-quality mixed caseload, then we would be very interested to hear from you.

This position will be closed on offer. We are an equal opportunities employer.
